

Guided tours of the Greenwood Centre building November / December 2018

The Greenwood Centre will soon be complete. Camden's Centre for Independent Living is due to move into Greenwood during November 2018.

Camden's disabled people, service users, family carers and staff are invited for a look around the new building. These visits are an informal and sociable opportunity for people to visit and explore the new building, ask questions and meet other building users. Tea and coffee will be available.

Guided tours have been arranged on the following dates:

- Wednesday 28 November, 11am
- Tuesday 4 December, 1pm
- Monday 10 December, 11am
- Monday 17 December, 11am

All visits will last approximately one hour. Advance booking is essential. Priority will be given to people with disabilities and their family and/or carers.
